Thanks for jumping on the phone today. I learned quite a bit during our short conversation! As promised, I'm sending along some more information about the event. Here's a link to the event location:

Please let me know if you need anything else or have any questions. I'll send over the panel briefing memo to you ASAP.

Carl,

We're pulling a background document for the event with headshots and bios for all of the panelists. Can you send over a photo and bio?

Scott- give me a call tomorrow (214-789-1879) or an e-mail to outline what you need and timing. If you want a presentation, I have a prototype. If you want a panel person, I can do that too. Also, I understand that Reggie Cheatham will be coming so we could collaborate how we interact.

I am relatively free tomorrow afternoon...let's get in touch.

David,

Good afternoon. I know you have been working with Anne to help secure Carl's participation in our hurricane preparedness event. I was wondering if you could send Carl's email address to me so I can invite him to participate in a prep call for the panel he will be on.

Thanks,
